

MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKING

Ronni Miller

"The Value of Expressive Writing"

Inspiring. Motivating. Healing. Ronni Miller, Founder and Director of the nationally known Write It Out® Program, stimulates and nurtures her audiences to experience release and relief in her interactive presentations on expressive writing for healing.

Successful writer, educator and motivator, Ronni Miller created the Write It Out® Program in 1992 as a motivational and expressive writing program for individuals of all ages. She believes in the healing powers of creativity, and encouragement as the first step toward success. Write It Out® synthesizes four decades of professional and artistic experience with the written word.

During the presentations, she guides her audiences to employ her unique expressive writing techniques to release emotional toxins for personal growth. Practical exercises are interspersed with entertaining anecdotes from her life story, and revelations from the scientific and medical literature attesting to the value of expressive writing for healing.

A particularly successful format is an introductory motivational speech by Ronni Miller followed by an actual workshop on Expressive Writing For Personal Growth.

Ronni Miller is an award winning author and the creator of Write It Out®®, a motivational and expressive writing program begun in 1992. She has a private practice in expressive writing, facilitates workshops in the US at schools, hospitals, and health centers, provides writing retreats in expressive writing in the US and Italy and is a motivational speaker. She holds a BA in English from Boston University has graduate credits from Middlebury School of English and was trained in theater at The American Academy of Dramatic Arts, NY. She has published numerous essays, articles, short stories, poems, and books including Dance With The Elephants: Free Your Creativity And Write and Cocoon To Butterfly: A Metamorphosis of Personal Growth Through Expressive Writing. Her books are available through her website WriteItOut.com.

Contact Ronni Miller to schedule an entertaining and informative appearance at your organization's next meeting at rmillerwio@gmail.com or (941) 359-3824.

For details about the Write It Out® Program, please see our website:

www.writeitout.com